

Create new user account

After you have clicked on you will be taken to this form.

Legend

Field	Description
username:	The system will suggest a username for the new account. However, you can choose any username that is not taken.
password:	The system will suggest a password for the new user account. However, you can enter any password you like. The user will later be able to change the password.
email:	Enter the email address of the new user.
real name:	Enter the name of the user.
set user active:	Check to enable the user to log into the backend.
user is admin:	Check to give the user full administration rights.

Finalising account set-up

After you have filled in all fields please click this button

.

to create the new user account. The details will be save in the database.

^TOP

URL: http://www.phpwcms-docu.de/index.php?create_user